Something WICKED is coming to Crow Books in East Victoria Park on Tuesday 2 August 6.00pm – 7.00pm

The blockbuster musical WICKED in all its emerald glory is currently playing in Perth for a strictly limited season at the Burswood Theatre and the Town of Victoria Park and associated business stores have taken on a green theme to celebrate its arrival.

Lovers of the musical and those interested in some insight on WICKED will have an added opportunity to attend a special event at Crow Books as cast members Maggie Kirkpatrick who performs the role of “Madame Morrible” and Zoe Jarrett an ensemble member and “Elphaba” understudy read excerpts from Gregory Maguire’s novel “Wicked” and “The Grimmerie: a behind-the scenes look at the hit Broadway musical”

Zoe will be providing an overview of the musical while Maggie will offer insights into her stormy character. After the reading, both ladies will take questions from the audience and be available to sign autographs.

Bookings essential: Phone 9472 9737

Venue: Crow Books, 1/900 Albany Highway, East Victoria Park
